Role Purpose:

This role will support the delivery of a new aspiration to harness collective power to continually challenge IPPFs delivery of its strategy.

This role may be considered as a 3-year contract role to ensure rotation and engagement with more communities.

Context of role:

- Any international organization, any federation, any movement, must be truly representative of those whom they claim to serve. IPPF is looking to include those who have been historically excluded from our services, our offices and our societies because of the colour of their skin, disability, drug use, sex work, HIV status, sexual identity or gender expression.
- Strategy 2028 sets out IPPF's aspirations and aims to harness a collective power which is the engine for delivering real change.
- A Disruptor is concerned that the regional work of IPPF is relevant and resonant to the lived experience of the most marginalized and historically excluded, and those underrepresented by the sector. It invokes courage, ambition and aspiration by partnering with regional partners that collectively ensure IPPF is a force to be reckoned with in the region.
- The role will work with MAs and outside the Federation to uncover and connect with non-traditional Partnerships that will make a positive difference to the progress of our work.
- Adhere to the safeguarding reporting and monitoring requirements of this role.

Role Deliverables:

- Conduct preliminary data analysis for the purpose of driving disruptive partnerships with community networks.
- Create and maintain regional opposition maps based on gathered/shared intelligence for use in informing decisions and priorities for action.
- Organise outreach meetings/events with community partners in support of our aim to provide opportunities for challenge and disruption.
- Recommend community engagement improvements that optimises the relationship between them and IPPF.
- Provide practical guidance on engaging with community partners so those we serve can challenge and disrupt how we think, speak and act.

Key Skills/Expertise:

- Lived experience within a stigmatized population an asset; an activist who works within and across multiple community networks challenging the system; standing up and speaking out.
- Builds authentic relationships and can relate to people from different cultures and backgrounds in a positive, engaging and thoughtful way.
- Inclusive, curious, and open to other's ideas as well as coming up with and articulating their own ideas.
- Problem solver.
- Good at organizing themselves.
- Understands how to leverage new technologies and digital spaces to support activism.
